DESCRIPTION

This home is a four-bedroom luxury semi-detached villa for rent in Puente Romano, just steps from the beach on Marbella's Golden Mile. This south-facing, semi-detached home has a private pool, 123 m² of terrace space and a principal suite overlooking the Mediterranean. A private cinema, gym and sauna make it an inviting choice for families and friends who want to spend as much time enjoying the house as they do exploring Marbella.

The open-plan living and dining area opens directly onto the pool terrace, and it's here that much of the day unfolds. Take your coffee outside before an early walk along the seafront, come home for a swim, then gather for lunch with the terrace doors open. Having the pool on the same level as the main living space is one of the villa's most appealing details. Whoever is setting the table can still join the conversation outside.

The villa has four bedrooms and four bathrooms, with a private lift connecting its levels. Three en suite bedrooms share the entrance floor, a convenient arrangement for families who prefer to sleep close together. The principal suite occupies the entire top floor. With sea views and a floor of its own, it offers a quiet place to wake up slowly while the rest of the house heads down for breakfast.

Why it's got the WOW Factor

What we love about this semi-detached villa is how much it offers in a location where you can walk to the beach. The lower level has a private gym, sauna, cinema and entertainment area. You can start the morning with a workout and sauna before joining everyone on the terrace, or give the children their pick of the evening film while dinner carries on upstairs.

For two families or a group of friends, the layout works particularly well. There's a natural gathering place beside the pool, a whole floor for entertainment and a little extra privacy for whoever takes the top-floor suite. On a longer stay, those details make a difference. Everyone can settle into their own routine and still come together for the best parts of the day.

What's close?

This home is steps from the Paseo Marítimo, the seafront promenade that runs along Marbella's Golden Mile. Head west towards Puerto Banús or east towards Marbella town, with the Mediterranean beside you in either direction. A morning walk can turn into coffee by the water, and it's easy to pop home between a beach afternoon and dinner.

The restaurants of Puente Romano are close by, making this a particularly appealing address if dining out is part of your Marbella plans. Book a favourite table for the evening, or keep things simple with a late lunch by the sea and a quiet night at your own poolside terrace.
