Third in line from the beach, this 5 bedroomed villa is perfectly located in the prestigious Marbella Club area. Each of the 5 bedrooms has a king-sized bed and an en suite bathroom. The bedrooms have modern décor with generous storage facilities including a dressing room in the master suite. The family bathroom has a bath while the other bathrooms have walk-in showers. The kitchen is the heart of any home and at Villa Marbella Club you will find modern appliances and tasteful cream coloured units with plenty of space for cooking. There is a cute breakfast bar and for more formal meals the dining room hosts up to 8 guests. Outside the property you will see a pretty garden and a swimming pool that can be heated in winter. It's worth noting that the villa is extremely secure as it is protected by the hotel's 24 hour security as well as that pertaining to Santa Margarita street itself.

DESCRIPTION

Why it's Got The Wow Factor

Villa Marbella Club has an interesting history which gives it a unique character. It was once home to Jean Negulesco, renowned movie director of the 50-70s who was a regular at the Marbella Club in his day. You will find some of his framed awards and memorabilia inside the property, which provide a great talking point for you and your guests.

What's Close?

Staying in this luxurious private property gives you close proximity to The Marbella Club whilst enjoying the seclusion of your own villa. There are fantastic pools, restaurants and terraces just on your doorstep and, while the property doesn't belong to the hotel, we have it covered- you can still order room service. This is also a prime location from which to discover the area. The iconic Orange Tree Square in the old town is only a short taxi ride away, as is the harbour of Puerto Banus.
