

5 Bedrooms Villa in Las Brisas

LUXURY RENTALS MARBELLA

The villa will give you that unmistakable feeling of wellbeing from the moment you enter. If we could bottle it, we would. Here, all you have to do is relax as literally everything has been considered for you. There are no gimmicks, just good, luxurious and well-thought-through design. With 5 bedrooms, 6 bathrooms and over 300m sq of charming exterior spaces to explore, you'll learn the true meaning of lounging as you enjoy the property's alcoves and chill-out areas on a balmy evening. The terraces of Villa Mercedes pack a punch too; there are outdoor spaces on the ground and first floor with covered areas and soft, shaded seating to give a little respite from the Andalucian heat. The crisp, outdoor pool has a number of tasteful loungers and we are sure that having dinner al fresco may just become your new hobby here in the villa's covered outdoor dining area.

DESCRIPTION

This 5 bedroomed villa has a spacious and airy feel throughout, an open plan kitchen with stylish monochrome breakfast bar and an attractive wine fridge. So that's a good start! The property has 5 bedrooms in total, spread over three floors. The master suite looks out onto a terrace from where you will see stunning views as you start the day. The bathrooms follow the same design principles: a nod to good taste, comfort and practicality with high-spec fixtures. The fun in the villa may really start downstairs though as the basement is a real delight. Here you will find an indoor pool, snooker table and bar, gym, wine cellar, hammam and sauna. Shh! Don't tell everyone or they will all turn up as uninvited house guests!

Why it's Got The Wow Factor

The villa has that much lusted after combination of prime location (front line golf at Las Brisas), stunning views and indulgent amenities that you will want to write home about. Even in the height of summer, the indoor pool and spa area is a real treat as is the whole of the basement area. You will be spoilt for choice. With such a plush interior, you might forget that perhaps the real luxury is the breathtaking view. Wake up to the soft green of the golf course with the mountains in the distance. Divine!

What's Close?

Front line at Las Brisas Golf Course, the villa enjoys a privileged position in Marbella's Golf Valley. This is a wonderful base for a beach or golf holiday and your Swish concierge can help you make the most of your time here. You will be only a short drive from Puerto Banus and The Golden Mile with plenty of bars and restaurants on your doorstep within Nueva Andalucia.

Service

We are here 24/7 for anything you need during your trip. We pride ourselves on our high standard of customer care. You can contact us before, during or after your stay, we love to hear from you!
