DESCRIPTION

Downstairs, guests benefit from an open-plan design with plenty of light and views out to the terrace. The large kitchen island and cupboards are a charming olive-green colour which combines perfectly with the soft beige dining tables on the 10 seater dinner table just in front of it, creating a tasteful, muted colour-scheme that makes you want to unplug and relax. The property's 5 bedrooms also follow neutral, restful themes with spacious comfortable beds and its 5 bathrooms have large, marble bath or shower suites.

The property has all the amenities you need to feel comfortable on holiday in Marbella. There's an inviting private pool outside the villa. Choose from indoor or al fresco dining with a covered outdoor dining table and large barbecue for your use. There is even a cinema room for year-round entertainment as well as the practical things that make your home-from-home more homely such as a laundry room.

Why it's Got the Wow Factor

It takes a special kind of property to make the Wow list, and this villa was a dead cert down to its fabulous location in Nueva Andalucia, coupled with its peaceful vibes. The only sounds that you'll hear here as you sip your morning smoothie on the terrace are the soft chirps of bird song.

What's Close

Golfers will be over the moon about the location of this villa as it's right in Los Naranjos, one of the biggest golf areas in the whole of Marbella's Golf Valley! Whilst it's close to golf, it's also close to shops, bars and restaurants in Nueva Andalucía, and only a short drive of under 10 minutes to reach The Golden Mile.
