DESCRIPTION

The apartment sleeps up to 6 with 3 double bedrooms and two bathrooms. One of the bedrooms, the master, has its own en-suite. Inside the open-plan lounge you will find a neat kitchen island and breakfast bar and a spacious lounge area with a TV as well as comfortable sofas to recline in. The terrace offers welcome respite after a hard day on the beach, with pretty views and plush chairs. Enjoy the sunset here! The building itself is in keeping with the Puente Romano style, white-washed with Andalusian style wood finishes.

Why it's Got the Wow Factor

It's not often that you can celebrate the beauty of nature without compromising on sophistication. Enjoy idyllic garden views from the pretty terrace and feel as though you are in your own little world, the perfect escapism from the busy Golden Mile. Yet, you will have all the wonderful attractions on your doorstep here. Think of this apartment like a calm retreat, its Scandinavian design with earthy tones further enhance the feeling of harmony. For families or groups of up to 6 friends seeking it all, this could be for you.

What's Close

The Puente Romano resort is on your doorstep, with its popular Supper Club night club, restaurants and El Chiringuito beach bar. The beach is just a short stroll away, 3 or 4 minutes from your door. You'll love exploring here, with The Marbella Club only a 5 minute walk in one direction, and Puerto Banus a short drive in the other.

Service

We are here to make your stay unforgettable. We are on call 24 hours a day before, during and after your trip in case you need us. We offer a concierge service and we go out of our way to add finishing touches to impress, like our towels and robes and delightful Meraki toiletries for guests.
