DESCRIPTION

The outdoor terraces, spanning a total of 360 m<sup>2</sup>, have been cleverly put together to offer cosy areas like the covered Balinese style bed on the rooftop solarium and the first-floor terrace with sofas and loungers, nicely framed with its own veranda. The views from every angle of this stunning property will lift your spirits and make you glad you came, with verdant greens and manicured lawns (this is the golf valley after all!) What's more there is a charming, private pool to enjoy.

If you love to cook or just enjoy eating en famille, you'll not be disappointed. The kitchen is fitted with extremely high-spec appliances and is a modern foodie's delight, with plenty of space. There's an open-plan dining area too, or if you prefer you can eat on the terrace. When it comes to sleeping arrangements, at the villa you'll find ultra-comfortable beds and plush linens with modern and stylish en-suite bathrooms fit for any prima donna! There are 5 bedrooms in total so it can accommodate up to 10 adults with ease. All of you will enjoy it too! You'll never get bored, and here's why: Head down to the basement where you will find a bar, a game room and a walk-in wine bodega. Cheers!

Why it's Got the Wow Factor

Set above the Los Naranjos golf course in arguably the best part of Marbella for golfers or anyone looking for escapism, this peaceful villa has its own style and grace. The property has a subtle glow about it and we don't just mean the brilliant sheen of the white kitchen furniture and appliances (although our housekeeping team do ensure they are very shiny!) As soon as you enter the Villa you will sense it, it has its own unique radiance. Perhaps it's the light that dances in and out of the open plan lounge and kitchen? Or, could it be the romantic floodlights on the terrace which set the scene for a balmy evening? When you visit you can tell us..

What's Close

The location of the Villa is great for golfers and families who love their own space and want to lounge in their own private pool, experiencing clean air with lush gardens yet still remaining close enough to amenities. You will find all of Marbella's busiest attractions just a short drive away. Golfers will love the proximity to Los Naranjos Golf Course, but it's also close to the historic old town of Marbella, The Golden Mile and Puerto Banus.

Service

We pride ourselves on our attention to your needs. We are available 24 hours a day and only too happy to help with any requests, offering our concierge service for guests.
