DESCRIPTION

This villa offers a combination of modern home comforts and pure escapism.

The ground floor of this limited-edition villa, part of a complex of only 5 of its kind, is inviting and harmonious. The open plan lounge has just the right amount of contrasting colour against the greyscale of the high-spec Siemens kitchen units. Sit on the large corner sofa and gaze out to an impressive view of the pool with the golf valley below and the sea in the distance.

With such a stimulating backdrop, maybe this is the place that you finally have the inspiration for that book you have been meaning to write!

The basement floor offers a secure garage for two cars and a fully equipped gym, cinema room and pool room. Trust us, you might be spending a great deal of time below stairs.

The sleeping arrangements at the villa are on a par with the high quality throughout. Plush bedding and comfortable beds with well-designed rooms, some of which afford views out to the valley below give guests a tremendous way to wake up. There are a total of 5 bathrooms in this property, and two of the bedrooms have ensembles.

Why it's Got the Wow Factor

Set on an incline above the Marbella golf valley of Nueva Andalucia, here you will appreciate a sense of peace and tranquility yet with an ultra-modern and comfortable look. The interior, pool, and terraces alone are fabulous but villa has an extra edge to it, here the beauty of nature meets wellbeing. This is both a stylish property and one that makes all your holiday dreams possible, whether it is relaxation, quality family time or enjoying the buzz of Marbella, only a short car journey away.

What's Close

Golfers will naturally find the location of the villa ideal, a retreat above the golf courses where you can kick-back after a long day. It's also close to The Golden Mile and Puerto Banus, just a short drive away in fact.
