DESCRIPTION

Luxury urbanization Sierra Blanca

Set in Sierra Blanca which is known as the Beverly Hills of Marbella, guests here will be far enough away from the action but also close enough to dip in and out.

Marbella is home to some fantastic residences, but it's rare to find a property like this villa. Stunning, modern design in a prime location, plenty of curb appeal with vast interior and exterior spaces where you will feel like you're on top of the world. It is not just a villa, it's an experience. You are spoilt for places to unwind in, the pergola on the rooftop has seating for 14 people and its own chargrill. Inside there's a cinema room and bar as well as a vast lounge with double height ceilings. Love the water? Bathe in the 20m lap pool with its own jacuzzi, or why not relax in the indoor spa area? If sports are your thing, you have a table-tennis table, a basketball hoop and plenty of room to play football on the grass area. Villa makes it easy to forget your worries: New cold to warm lamps let you set the mood, a fully equipped automated system means you control the temperature and lighting at the touch of a button and the garage even has a rotating plate for the two cars it holds. Nothing has been forgotten. What are you waiting for?
