Why it's Got the Wow Factor

When one of the most iconic design houses such as Fendi puts its mark on a luxury development, the results are bound to be impressive. In this case, Epic Marbella has retained that boutique feel, offering guests access to a world of elegance and refinement in their own little private world.

For a luxury vacation, this is an ideal choice for those seeking refinement and comfort together. The residence offers floor to ceiling windows and plenty of space, and the finishing touches throughout are impressive, with Gaggenau appliances in the kitchen and the design language of Fendi running through all the interior furnishings.

What's Close

Epic Marbella is located on Marbella's Golden Mile, only a short drive from the beach or from Puerto Banus. This highly privileged area offers serenity for our guests, yet it's superbly located for amenities, with the airport only a 45 minute drive too.
