

Drago 2-2, In the heart of Puente Romano

LUXURY RENTALS MARBELLA

Experience Mediterranean luxury at Drago 2-2, a sophisticated three-bedroom apartment in the prestigious Puente Romano Resort on Marbella's Golden Mile. Just moments from the beach and the resort's restaurants and boutiques, this elegant residence features a sun-filled open-plan living and dining area, a fully equipped kitchen with premium appliances, and a south-facing terrace with tranquil garden views. Each bedroom includes an en suite bathroom, with the master suite offering direct terrace access. Combining refined interiors, modern design, and effortless comfort, Drago 2-2 provides access to the resort's exclusive amenities, including tropical gardens, a communal pool, and direct beach access, perfect for a luxurious and relaxed coastal escape.

|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                       |                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  |  |  |  |  |
| ENTIRE HOME                                                                         | APARTMENT                                                                           | 6 GUESTS                                                                            | 3 BEDROOMS                                                                            | 3 BATHROOMS                                                                           |
|  |  |  |  |  |
| PLOT - N/A                                                                          | BUILT 136 m <sup>2</sup>                                                            | 1 CARS                                                                              | COMMUNAL POOL                                                                         | POOL VIEW                                                                             |

DESCRIPTION

Experience the epitome of Mediterranean luxury at Drago 2-2, a stunning three-bedroom residence nestled within the world-renowned Puente Romano Resort on Marbella's Golden Mile. Perfectly positioned just moments from the beach and the resort's celebrated restaurants and boutiques, this sophisticated apartment combines timeless elegance, modern design, and effortless comfort for the ultimate coastal escape.

Where Contemporary Style Meets Resort Luxury. Step inside Drago 2-2 and be instantly captivated by the seamless open-plan living space, bathed in natural light. The interior has been beautifully curated to reflect a refined modern aesthetic with soft neutral tones, quality finishes, and elegant furnishings that exude understated sophistication.

The living and dining area opens directly onto a charming south-facing terrace, where tranquil garden views create the perfect backdrop for morning coffee or evening relaxation. The fully equipped kitchen, with premium appliances and sleek cabinetry, ensures both practicality and style.

Each of the three bedrooms has been meticulously designed with comfort in mind, featuring en suite bathrooms and thoughtful details throughout. The master suite offers direct terrace access, a peaceful retreat where you can savour the serenity of Puente Romano's lush surroundings.

WHY IT'S GOT THE SWISH FACTOR

Drago 2-2 captures the true spirit of luxurious yet laid-back living. Its combination of elegant interiors, unbeatable location, and access to the exclusive Puente Romano amenities, including award-winning dining, a world-class tennis club, tropical gardens, and direct beach access, make it a rare gem on Marbella's Golden Mile.

Whether lounging by the communal pool, enjoying a sunset stroll along the promenade, or hosting friends in your stylish open-plan living area, this apartment promises a truly elevated experience.

WHAT'S CLOSE?

Puente Romano sits at the heart of Marbella's Golden Mile, just minutes from both Puerto Banús and Marbella town. Residents enjoy proximity to the area's finest restaurants, designer boutiques, beach clubs, and wellness facilities, all within a secure, beautifully landscaped resort environment.

FEATURES

FACILITIES

Communal swimming pool

Parking space (1 allocated)

Family/kid-friendly

AMENITIES

Air conditioning

Fully equipped kitchen
with high-end appliances

Flat-screen TV

Terrace with garden views

