DESCRIPTION

Set on an impressive 1,927 m² plot, this villa has been thoughtfully designed to create a seamless relationship between architecture, light and outdoor living. The home offers a total built area of 1,570.75 m², including 829.05 m² of residential space and 741.70 m² of exterior areas, creating generous indoor and outdoor environments for both relaxing and entertaining.

Organised around a striking central courtyard, the villa allows natural light to flow throughout the property, connecting interior and exterior spaces while enhancing the home's clean architectural lines and calm, minimalist aesthetic. The architecture has been designed to create a natural dialogue with its surroundings, allowing views, light and landscape to become part of the experience.

Featuring five double bedrooms, including three en suite bedrooms, thoughtfully designed to balance privacy and shared living. The main suite opens onto a rooftop terrace with panoramic sea views, while several bedrooms also enjoy access to elevated outdoor spaces overlooking the landscape. A separate guest bedroom is arranged around a private interior garden, offering an additional sense of privacy and tranquillity.

At the heart of the villa, an impressive 150 m² open-plan living space seamlessly integrates the kitchen, dining and lounge areas into one elegant environment centred around the courtyard. Designed by renowned Banni Studio, the interiors embrace a contemporary and timeless style that enhances the sense of balance and serenity throughout the home.

Outside, covered terraces, landscaped gardens and a swimming pool naturally extend the living spaces into the landscape, creating environments designed for both quiet relaxation and social gatherings. The rooftop terrace introduces an elevated outdoor setting closely connected to light, views and open-air living.

Why it's got the WOW Factor

This villa has been thoughtfully designed to maximise Mediterranean light, openness and connection to its surroundings. The central courtyard creates a unique flow throughout the villa, allowing natural light to shape the experience of every space. The combination of spacious interiors, rooftop sea views, landscaped outdoor areas and seamless transitions between indoors and outdoors makes it a refined setting for private stays, gatherings and shared experiences. Designed around calm, balance and contemporary living, this villa offers a unique sense of privacy while remaining deeply connected to the surrounding landscape.

What's close?

This property is located in Los Flamingos II, Benahavís, an exclusive enclave surrounded by rolling hills, Mediterranean vegetation and golf courses.

The villa enjoys close proximity to Marbella, Estepona and some of the coast's most renowned beaches, offering guests access to the best of the Costa del Sol while enjoying the tranquillity of a private residential setting.

Positioned between the coastal mountains and the Mediterranean, Benahavís offers a lifestyle shaped by light, nature and open views towards the sea.
